Start with the basic Shape. Start your bird sketch by noting the posture of the bird or the angle at which it sits with a single line. Over this, add an oval for a body and then a circle for the head. Then stop and check your proportions. It is easy to change the size of the head early in the drawing.

Drawing Birds Tutorial - John Muir Laws

Draw a round triangular shape that looks like an egg to make the head. After drawing the head below this, draw an egg shape to be the body of the bird. The top of the body should be large, and should taper down at the end. The neck is simple. Draw a curved line between the head and the body.
